VIEW AT MUSEUM

Rare Lace Flounce of Point de France Presented by Mrs. W. P. Douglas.

PAINTINGS BY GERMANS

Many Art Works Loaned From the Collection of Mrs. Benjamin Thaw.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art placed on public view yesterday a num-ber of recent accessions of important works of art. Among them were a remarkable lace flounce of Point de France, presented by Mrs. William P. Douglas, four modern German paintings purchased from the fund left by the late Hugo Reisinger for that purpose, and a number of works of art loaned by Mrs. Benjamin Thaw.

Among the works loaned by Mrs. Thaw

Among the works loaned by Mrs. Thaw are six paintings of great interest—a Madoqna by Coslmo Rosselli, a portrait by Florenzo di Lorenzo, a St. John by Somone Martini, a Madonna and Child by Fra Angelico, a Madonna, Child and Angels by a Florentine master of the Fifteenth century and a portrait by Murille.
